

FOI North American Field Ministry Representative Position Overview

As a Christian, do you have a passion for Israel and the Jewish people? Do you believe now more than ever that communicating the Good News and love of the Messiah to a hurting and dying world is of utmost importance? If yes, you could be a good fit for the role of Field Ministries representative with The Friends of Israel Gospel Ministry.

Responsibilities:

- Communicate the gospel of the Messiah Jesus as God gives opportunity to anyone seeking a relationship with Him.
- Develop relationships with and serve within the Jewish community in the representative's appointed location.
- Edify local churches and individual Christians in what the Bible instructs regarding God's program for Israel—past, present, and future.
- Foster support for the State of Israel and solidarity with the Jewish people.
- Promote the overall ministry of The Friends of Israel Gospel Ministry.
- Raise necessary prayer and financial support
- Other responsibilities as assigned

Requirements:

- Must be in agreement with the FOI Doctrinal Statement
- A bachelor's degree is preferred, as well as a commitment to practical ministry training
- Gifted to communicate biblical truth one-on-one
- Excellence in cooperative team effort
- Demonstration of a positive work ethic